

REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS (RFA) INTRODUCTION

Dear Community-Based Organization:

Junior League of Annapolis, Inc. (JLA) is pleased to present this REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS (“RFA”) in the search for its next three-year partnership with a non-profit organization, government agency, or other community organization. If your organization has or is in the process of developing a project that serves Anne Arundel County, meets our community’s needs, and aligns with JLA’s mission, issue area, and focus area; we invite your organization to submit an application. JLA’s current issue area is “Addressing Food Insecurity” with a specific focus on the Self-Sufficiency of Women and Children. As partners, JLA and the selected organization will strategically collaborate to develop, organize, provide trained volunteers, and use designated JLA funds of up to $5,000 annually to successfully implement and improve the project over a three-year period.

JLA Mission:

Junior League of Annapolis, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. It reaches out to all women of any race, religion, or national origin who demonstrate an interest in and a commitment to voluntarism. Junior League of Annapolis, Inc. is part of the Association of Junior Leagues International, Inc.
